Executive Summary

On September 29th – 30th, 2012, Gravis Marketing, a non-partisan research firm, conducted a survey of 914 likely voters in the state of Florida regarding their likely vote for a given presidential candidate, senate candidate, and other social and economic issues important to voters. The poll carries a margin of error of 3.4%. A full list of the questions, summaries of the responses, and the cross tabulations follow.

Presidential race

The contest for the presidential office continues to be close, with the most Obama holding a 49.0% to 48.4% advantage over Romney. The Senate race is also just as close, with Nelson possessing a 43.1% to 43.0% lead, with 13.9% of likely voters still undecided.

In addition to the President and Senate races, the poll addressed some other issues relevant to the nation as a whole and to voters in Florida.

Is America headed in the right direction?

U.S. Headed in the Right Direction?

U.S. direction
■ Right
■ Wrong

Overall, likely voters indicated they think America is on the wrong track, with 57.7% indicating American is headed in the wrong direction and 42.3% indicating they think America is on the right track. The issue is largely divergent along party lines, with 95.6% of Republican indicating they think the Nation is on the wrong track, while 83.8% of Democrats indicating they think America is on the right track. Among Independents, 63.8% think America is on the wrong track.

U.S. Headed in Right Direction?

Governor Rick Scott's job performance?

On the whole, 34.9% indicated they think positively of Governor Rick Scott's job performance, whereas 38.2% indicated they view his job performance as negative.

Rick Scott vs. Charlie Crist?

In a hypothetical race between Rick

Scott and Charlie Crist, Scott comes out ahead among likely voters by a 45.1% to 40.8% advantage.

Other hypothetical races between Rick Scott and challengers?

Among the two other hypothetical races the poll address, Scott holds a 45.1% to 35.2% advantage against Alex Sink and a 43.4% to 30.8% lead against Buddy Dyer.
