Emerson Poll: Washington State Looks Safe for Democrats in the Presidential and Senate Races;
Trump Has a Wide Lead in Nebraska.

BOSTON, MA— Two pre-debate polls released today by Emerson College show Hillary Clinton holding a 6-point lead over Donald Trump (44% to 38%) in the state of Washington, while Gary Johnson gets 7% of the vote, Jill Stein 5%, and 6% remain undecided. In historically red Nebraska, Trump leads Clinton by 27 points, 56% to 29%, with Johnson at 7% and Stein at 1%. Seven percent (7%) of Nebraskans are undecided. Each poll had a margin of error of 3.6 percentage points.

In the U.S. Senate race in Washington, 48% of those polled plan to vote for the four-term incumbent, Democrat Patty Murray, while 41% prefer Republican Chris Vance, and 8% are undecided.

Nebraska is the second state Emerson has polled where Trump has a positive favorable/unfavorable ratio (50% to 45%). Clinton has a -37 deficit (30% /67%). In the Cornhusker state, Trump leads in Congressional Districts 1 and 3, by margins of 53% to 29% and 65% to 20%, respectively. However, in District 2 he only leads by 9 points, 49% to 40%. Nebraska is one of two states that allocate their electoral votes by congressional district.

Among primary voters in Nebraska, Clinton is getting 57% of Bernie Sander primary voters while Trump is taking 15%. Trump is winning 88% of those who voted for Senator Ted Cruz but only 28% of John Kasich primary voters; 22% of Kasich voters favor Clinton. Trump is also winning Nebraska Independents, 43% to 24%, and 17% of Democrats, compared with Clinton, who has 9% of the Republican vote. Both genders are breaking for Trump by large margins. He leads Clinton 59% to 27% with men and 53% to 32% with women. Trump also leads with all age groups.

In Washington, Independents favor Trump over Clinton, 35% to 29%. However voters have a more positive view of Clinton. Four in 10 (41%) have a favorable opinion of her while 54% see her unfavorably (-13). Trump is under water by 30 points (33% to 63%).

Sanders won the Democratic Caucus in Washington by a landslide, and his voters are moving towards Clinton (60%) and Stein (17%) rather than Trump (10%). Clinton leads Trump with women by 14 points, 49% to 35%, while he holds a 3-point lead with men, 42% to 39%.

CALLER ID

The Emerson College Washington poll was conducted September 25-26, and the Nebraska poll was conducted September 25-27 under the Supervision of Professor Spencer Kimball. Both samples consisted of 700 likely general election voters with a margin of error of +/- 3.6%. Data was weighted by 2012 election results, age, gender, region and party affiliation. It is important to remember that subsets based on gender, age and party breakdowns carry with them higher margins of error, as the sample size is reduced. Data was collected using an Interactive Voice Response (IVR) system of landlines only. The full methodology and results can be found at www.theecps.com.
