Q6  Now I am going to read a series of statements about the candidates for Governor, and after each one, please tell me if you think it is a very convincing, a somewhat convincing, or not a convincing reason to vote for that candidate. Here’s the first one: State Senator Laura Kelly was raised in a military family and has dedicated her life to doing right by Kansas families. When Governor Brownback made the largest cuts to schools in state history, resulting in larger class sizes, school closings and some 4-day school weeks, she fought back. After 8 years of the Brownback budget, we need to get Kansas back on track. Kelly will be the education governor we need to move our state forward. Do you find this a very convincing, somewhat convincing, or not a convincing reason to vote for Laura Kelly?
   Very convincing ................................... 37%
   Somewhat convincing .............................. 24%
   Not convincing .................................... 34%
   Not sure ............................................. 4%

Q7  Here’s the next one: Kansas Secretary of State Kris Kobach is known for bold leadership. Kobach has spent much of his career fighting illegal immigration. As Secretary of State, Kobach worked to ensure Kansas has the most secure elections in the country. As Governor, Kobach will reduce state spending, cut taxes, protect the lives of the unborn and protect our right to bear arms. Kobach is the principled leader we need. Do you find this a very convincing, somewhat convincing, or not a convincing reason to vote for Kris Kobach?
   Very convincing ................................. 38%
   Somewhat convincing ............................ 12%
   Not convincing ................................... 47%
   Not sure ............................................. 3%
Q8 Here’s the last one: Businessman Greg Orman is running as an independent for one reason – the current partisan political system is not working. Orman is the common-sense problem solver Kansas needs. Orman has spent his career building his company into a multimillion dollar business with over 120 employees. Only a political independent such as himself can help grow our economy and improve our public schools. Do you find this a very convincing, somewhat convincing, or not a convincing reason to vote for Greg Orman?

- Very convincing: 17%
- Somewhat convincing: 35%
- Not convincing: 43%
- Not sure: 6%

Q9 After hearing the information in this poll let me ask you again: The candidates for Governor this November are Democrat Laura Kelly, Republican Kris Kobach, Independent Greg Orman, Libertarian Jeff Caldwell, and independent candidate Rick Kloos. Q10 The following are two position statements by two of the candidates for Governor. Which one comes closest to your views on Kansas public schools? Statement A: Kris Kobach does not want to invest more money in our schools. Kobach says our schools are overfunded and that classrooms without computers are fine. He has said that we should spend less money on public schools and more money on private schools. Statement B: Laura Kelly believes in investing in our schools. She led the effort to double the number of Kansas school children able to enter Kindergarten ready to learn. Kelly stood up to Brownback’s education cuts and she will keep fighting to get Kansas schools back on track.

- Statement A comes closest to my views on Kansas public schools: 25%
